YWCA Committee Presents Memorial Gift to Church

Freshmen Y-Teens of the YWCA entertained the freshman Hi-Y's of the YMCA at a Christmas dance last Thursday at Moose Hall. Hostesses and guests together decorated the hall after school Wednesday in preparation for the party. Chairman of arrangements was Y-Teen Lou Ann McFarland. Frank Christianson was master of ceremonies. Adults present were Leonard Lifton, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lukes and Mrs. Martha Evans.

The same two groups will be contributing to the Christmas spirit about Torrance tomorrow evening by singing Christmas carols in the streets and before the houses of shut-ins. Persons who wish to sing with them should come to the Community Chest Service Center, 1103 Sartori, at 7:30 p. m. Persons who have names of shut-ins should phone them into the center by 3 p. m. Friday. Call 1856.

The YWCA committee will meet this evening at the home of its secretary, Mrs. Helen Tavan, 1819 Andreo avenue. Plans for spring activities will be discussed. The committee recently made a donation to the First Christian Church to purchase a picture for the wall of the church nursery. The gift was made as a memorial to Mrs. Grace Bartholomew who was, at the time of her death, an active member of the Torrance YWCA committee. She had also been active in the YWCA in Warren, Ohio, serving there on the board of directors and as chairman of the membership committee.

Amy Savage Named to Head Trios for Six Months Term

Highlight of the last meeting of Trip Rebekahs held in California Hall was presentation of the Anchor by Ocean Queen Lodge, San Pedro. Harvey Clark of San Pedro, district deputy grand master, presented his drill team in an effective presentation march as the Anchor was brought into the lodge room on a small craft, "Oddfellowship." The drill team members were beautifully gowned, half of the members wearing red, and the others, blue gowns, complimented with white corsages.

Election of officers featured the business session when the following were chosen to serve during the ensuing six months: Amy Savage, noble grand; Lella Ruth Sellens, vice grand; Irma Powers, recording secretary; Dorothy Rogers, financial secretary; Retta Nelson, treasurer; Ellen Smith, trustee, 18 months; Arza Veatch, trustee, 12 months.

Representing Trio at Bellflower Lodge on December 21 will be Mrs. Margie Russell, Good Fellowship chairman, and a large delegation from the local lodge. Mrs. Ora Brown and her committee served refreshments at the close of the meeting.

Next regular session will be on December 27, at the annual Christmas party planned for members and their families. A covered dish supper will be served beginning at 6:30 and will precede a short program and exchange of gifts among members.

For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee; because he trusteth in thee. —Isaiah.

Job's Daughters Install Guardian Council at Meet

At the last meeting of Torrance Bethel 50, International Order of Job's Daughters, "Farewell Night" was observed, complimenting Beverly Luster, retiring honored queen. Feature of the evening was installation of the Guardian Council at which Mrs. Mildred Edwards, newly installed deputy grand guardian, officiated.

Grouped about the altar, the following were installed as Council members.

Edna Babcock, guardian; William Brenner, associate guardian; Mary McDonald, secretary; Illa Mae Rodgers, treasurer; Charlotte Robison, director of music; Edna Moffatt, promoter of sociality; Katherine Lane, promoter of hospitality and her assistant, Lois Hedgecock; Ethel Brenner, custodian of paraphernalia and her assistant, Lea Wells.

During escorts and honors, two past honored queens, Misses Pat Clere, and Dorothy Warning, were presented.

Events of Miss Luster's term were highlighted in a poem composed and read by Dora Ritko. A prize for selling 63 dozen doughnuts during a recent ways and means project, was awarded to Eva Morang by Donna Wolf.

In a pretty closing ceremony each Job's Daughter officer presented Miss Luster with a long-stemmed rose to complete a lovely bouquet.

A triangle was formed about the altar as the girls repeated the obligation in unison. Each was given a certificate by the of Wisconsin in 1891.

chaplain, Ann Marie Bishop. In the banquet room, tables were decorated in Christmas motif and strawberry sundaes were served by Mrs. Don Luster. Ornamental yuletide corsages served as place cards for each Bethel and Council member.

Mrs. Wolf at Christmas Luncheon

Mrs. Don Wolf, president of Lomita-San Pedro PTA Council, attended a Christmas party for council presidents of Tenth District PTA, held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. H. Bresse.

Holiday decorations were used for the buffet luncheon which preceded an exchange of gifts.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

AS ONE HANDS down a good name, Christmas each year hands down its traditions, and all are good.

It has been a tradition of Schultz & Peckham—since 1921—to regard the good will of our customers as our most precious asset. In the holiday season of 1950 we extend to you—not as a customer alone—but as a friend, our very best wishes for...

Merry Christmas!
